

6.4 Traffic control by police officers (7)

1. A police officer is regulating the traffic at a crossroads even though the traffic lights are in operation. What applies?

- a) The police officer's signals
- b) ~~The traffic signs governing priority~~
- c) ~~The traffic light signals~~

2. A police officer is regulating the traffic at a crossroads where there are also traffic signs governing priority. What applies?

- d) The police officer's signals
- e) ~~The traffic signs governing priority~~
- f) ~~The rule „right before left“~~

3. How important are instructions from police officer?

- a) They must be obeyed
- b) ~~They release you from your own duty to take care~~
- c) ~~They must be obeyed only if they tally with the traffic signs installed~~

4. PHOTO: What is correct?

- a) The yellow car must leave the cross roads
- b) I must get ready to proceed
- c) ~~I can turn now~~

5. PHOTO: What is correct?

- a) Wait at the crossroads
- b) ~~Turn without stopping~~

6. PHOTO: What is correct?

- a) Cross the crossroads at a brisk pace
- b) Wait at the crossroads for further instructions from the police officer

7. PHOTO: What applies here?

- a) The crossroads may be crossed
- b) Turning off is prohibited
- c) You must wait for further signals from the police officer before the crossroads may be entered