

6.2 Green Signs (3)

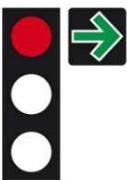

1. What is permitted at these traffic lights with green arrow sign?

	<ul style="list-style-type: none">a) Turn right from the right lane after having stopped first, when there is no obstruction or danger to othersb) Turn right only when the traffic lights are greenc) Turn right without stopping
---	--

2. Where should a vehicle stop at these traffic lights with green arrow sign?

	<ul style="list-style-type: none">a) Before the crossing or junction if there is no stop lineb) At the stop linec) There is no need to stop
---	--

3. You want to turn right at these traffic lights with a green arrow sign. What is the right course of action?

	<ul style="list-style-type: none">a) I have to ensure that other road users are not impededb) I stop before the junctionc) I may turn right into any lane
--	--

6.3 Permanent Signs (3)

1. What do these signals indicate?

- a) The two lanes on the right are open to traffic
- b) You may not use the two lanes on the left
- c) ~~You may use the two lanes on the left for overtaking only~~

2. What is true of permanently illuminated sign?

- a) Vehicles may not stop at the side of carriageways with permanently illuminated sign
- b) Permanently illuminated signs either block lanes or open them up to traffic
- c) ~~Permanently illuminated signs apply to multi track motor vehicles only~~

3. What do these permanently illuminated signs mean? Vehicles travelling in lane _____

- a) 1 may continue driving on it
- b) 2 must change to the right-side lane
- c) ~~3 and lane 4 must stop~~